PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.

A Question as to Who Will Distribute Them.

CONGRESS MADE NO PROVISION.

Ex-Members of the Fifty-First Congress and Their Successors Each Claim the Control of the Distribution-Other Dispatches from Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—It is probable trouble will result between exmembers of the Fifty-first congress and their successors of the Fifty-second over the distribution of the immense number of public documents provided for by the congress just ended and which are

In years past it has been the custom of the house, before the adjournment of a congress, to adopt a resolution allowing the members of that congress to control the distribution of public documents until the new congress assembled in the following December. Such a resolution was not passed by the recent congress, and now members of the Fiftysecond, are claiming that they have a right to all doc ments printed after the 4th of March, while the retiring members of the Fifty-first contend that documents authori ed by that congress. no matter when they were printed belong to its

JANUARY IMMIGRATION.

An Increase of Twenty-Five Per Cent Over That of January, 1890.

WASHINGTON, March 21.-In view of the recent action of the citizens of New Orleans in their efforts to stamp out the Mafia by killing the agents of that dreaded Ital an secret organization, the bulletin of the bureau of statistics, issued Thursday, showing the number of immigrants of all nationalities who have landed on our shores for the month of January, is of interest.

It is shown that the total number of immigrants langed at the various American ports during the month of January was 14,287. This is an increase over the corresponding month of last year of

The German immigrants were most numerous, numbering 2,685 persons. Russia is no t in the list, 2,017 of her citizens emigrating to the United States. This large Russian contigent was composed principally of Hebrews who were driven from their native land by the cruel oppression of the czar.

The Italians stand third in the list of immigrants, numbering 1,766, as against 1,627 entering American ports from sunny Italy in January, 18.0. Italian immigrat on has been quite large during the past seven months. During this time 27,282 Italians have arrived in this country. Pohemia, Hungary, England and Poland also contributed very greatly during the month of January to swell our population, each of these countries sending about 1,200 immigrants.

Naval War College to Be Established.

WASHINGTON, March 21 .- Under authority of a section of the naval appropriation bill, the bureau of navigation of the navy department has begun the preparation of plans for the re-establishment of the naval war college. The preparations are being advanced rapidly and within a few months the college will probably be in operation. The appropr ation bill provided for the consideration of new buildings, and the navy department intends to erect suitable lecture rooms and to purchase all necessary apparatus. Coasters' island, off Newport, will be the site of the college, and this selection is considered particularly advantageous because the nearness of the sea will allow practical demon-

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Death Plays Another Part in the Columbus, Indiana, Tragedy.

COLUMBUS, Ind., March 21.—Robert Skillman, who was shot at the Panhandle depot of this city last Thursday evening week, by Lambert N. Goldsmith, and has since been lying at the city hospital, died yesterday morning at 3:45 o clock.

Goldsmith was released on a $5,000 bond on Wednesday morning, and has been at his home in Louisville, but he kept up constant communication with his friends here by tele raph. The charge upon which he was released was assault and battery with attempt to kill.

A telegram was sent to Louisville after the death of Skillman yesterday morning, to rearrest Goldsmith on a charge of murder, and City Marshal Haggerty went down on the early train to bring him back to this city. If he refuses to come without a requisition, one will be procured. Freig t Train Wrecked.

Sr. John, N. B., March 21.—Between 10 and 11 o'clock last night a special westbound freight train on the Canada Pacific railroad was derailed two miles east of Westfield. Fourteen cars went off the track and pi ed up one upon another, smashing themselves and tearing up the rails. As the track could not be cleared, the Western express and Canadian Facific express from Halifax had to be held over here all night. One man only was injured. The loss to the road will be heavy.

CATHOLIC CONVENT PILLAGED.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 1891.

Two Friars and a Porter Murdered and Several Others Wounded.

NEW YORK, March 21.—Advices from Cable Messages from Across the Caroline islands report the attempted pillaging of the Catholic convent on the island of Santa Rosa, the murder of two friars and a p rter, and the wounding of several other friars.

while the friars were at supper about 7 o clock on the evening of Jan. 15, one of them, Friar Zagara, had occosion to leave the dining room, and in the dimly lighted hall he stumble! over the body of Thomas, a native who acted as porter. Thomas was bleeding profusely from a long, deep gash in his throat and from several wounds on the body. 'Robbers." he gasped, as Friar zagara raised the poor fel ows head. A moment later his head fell back. He was dead. Friar Lagara shouted an alarm, and the fria.s came trooping from the

While Friars Gomez, Morales and Gonzales were searching on the second floor of the convent they came upon the hilts in their breasts. As Gomez was falling he was again stabbed by the murderer. Morales ran down stairs with the robbe s in close pursuit. When he was at about the middle of the stars he suddenly threw up his hands toppied over, and fell dead. One of the roblers had thrown a sharp knife with such accurate aim that it had pierced the base of the skull and caused

By this time the alarm was given, and several officers of the garrison near by came hurrying to the convent and met them with a crowd of natives. The two robbers tried to get to the side of the convent which looks on the river, open a window and jump out. They were foiled in this, an i they jumped at the crowd of friars and tried to hack and hew them to death. They were finally overpowered and bound.

The guard house, where the robbers are imprisoned, is doubly guarded for fear an attempt may be made by the natives to free them.

A GREAT ACTOR GONE.

Death of Lawrence Barrett at the Windsor Hotel in New York.

NEW YORK, March 21.-Lawrence Barrett, the actor, died last night at 10 45 o'clock at was due to heart failure and was quite sudden. His wife and his physician were with him when he died. Mr. Barrett's illness dates from Wednesday night he was LAWRENCE BARRETT, engaged. It was said at the time that he was merely suffering from a severe cold and would be out in a few days. Even yesterday the reports of his conditi n were very favorable. Late yesterday evening, however, his physician, Dr. Chambers, was summoned.

Heart failure, superinduced by pneu monia, was the direct cause of the tragedian's death. Dr. Chambers says pneumonia set in Thursday morning.

Mrs. Barrett, who was in Boston, was sent for and arrived Thursday evening. Dr. J. P. Oliver, of Boston, Mr. Barrett's family physician, was also summoned and came on at once. A consulta-tion was held, and it was decided that Mr. Barrett's case was serious, but that if no other complications appeared, the sick man might pull through.

Between o and 10 o'clock yesterday evening there was a rapid change for the worse and at the latter hour Mr. Barrett was in a semi-conscious condition. About fifteen minutes before the end came Mr. Barrett was entirely unconscious and so he remained until he died. The funeral will probably take place in Boston. Edwin Booth was deeply moved when he received the notice of Mr. Barrett's death.

ITALIAN MANIFESTO.

They Are Called Upon to Be Peaceful and Obey the Laws. CHICAGO, March 21.—Count Manassero di Costigliola, consul of Italy at Chicago, has issued the following manifesto through the Italian press of the city, pursuant to instructions from the the Italian minister at Washington:

"Considering the great agitation throughout our local colonies in Amer-ica caused by the events at New Orleans. I make through you a confident appeal to their patriotism, requesting them to show themselves at this time worthy of that most c.vi ized country which gave them birth, by observing among them-selves a strictly peaceful and lawful beha ior.

The consul general here has also sent out the following note for publication in the Italian newspapers:

"The dignified protests made by the res dent patriotic colony and its exemplary conduct during the present sad circumstances render further words of mine quite unneccessary in order to maintain complete and absolute calm and to faithfully and patiently await the final result of the actions of our royal government."

The following private cablegram has been received here from Rome:

"I am informed that assurances on the part of the Federal government at Washington have reached here saying that ample and satisfactory reparations will be given."

R. G. Dun & Company's Weekly Business Report.

NEW YORK, March 21.-R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: There are some indications of lacking trade. At the west cold and unfavorable weather and the bad condition of country roads affect distribution and collections and the apparent change may be only temporary. PERISHED IN A SNOW STORM.

A Number of Lives Lost and Great Suffering in Montana. CUT BANK, Mont., March 21.-There has been large loss of life from starvation and exposure along the line of the extension of the Great Northern over the kockies to the Pacific coast and Bellingham bay. Great storms have been raging west of the Missouri, and no work has been possible either at grading or rail laying for six weeks.

More than 2,000 men have been lying idle all this time hemmed in oy mountains on one side and impenetrable snow-drifts on the other. Provisions, too, have run short, and the frail shanties in which the men have been housed have kept out but little of the piercing cold. The men are penniless and have been compelled to forage through the surrounding country as best they could.

At Summit, on the main range of the Rocky mountains, one hundred miles west of Cut bank, a number of men have been engaged during the winter in driving a tunnel. When workmen arrived at Cut Bank, and found that no work could be done there, a number of them started to traverse the deep snows to Summit. Many perished from the cold and exposure. The record so far is seven deaths from freezing, while large numbers had arms and legs severely frozen. It is also believed that a great many have perished of whom no trace has been found and whose bodies have fed the wolves and coyotes,

Another Blow at Our Navy. BROOKLYN, March 21.-At 12:40

Wednesday night an unknown steamer, about 300 feet long, ran into the receiving ship Vermont, at the company's dock in the navy yard. She is supposed to be a tramp vessel, and ran out of her course while on her way down the East river. She hit the Vermont abaft the port bow, and stove in a vertical hole twelve teet deep and three or four feet wide, cutting her down to within two feet of the water's edge. After the collision the unknown steamer backed off and would not answer the hail of the sentries. Considerable damage was also sustained on the dock. The Vermont is one of the oldest vessels in the United States navy, and is built after one of the old-time style of frigates.

EVENING BULLETIN. CAPTAIN LONGMOOR.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY. ROSSER & McCARTHY,

Proprietors.

SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 1891.

AT Louisville yesterday, Judge Jackson created a sensation by taking to task the petit jurors. He said that the way criminals were acquitted, who, according to the proof, were clearly guilty, was a disgrace to the dispensation of justice and brings the court and officials into bad repute. Such laxness is what leads to the taking of the law into their own hands by indignant citizens, of which we have had a recent example at New Orleans.

The Judge's remarks are timely, and the State. many others on the bench ought to follow his example. Petit jurors are too often responsible for the acquittal of redhanded criminals.

JUDGE STANTON.

One of Maysville's Most Distinguished and Highly Honored Citizens.

Peaceful End of a Life Well Spent-In- and served the full term of six years. teresting Sketch of the Deceased.

In the death of Hon. Richard H. Stanton, which occurred yesterday shortly after 12 o'clock, Kentucky loses one of her most distinguished lawyers and Maysville one of her old and most highly honored citizens.

The deceased had been in failing health for several years. The decline was slow at first, but his once vigorous constitution gradually yielded to disease and advanc-

A year or so ago he was taken down with some disease of the heart, which was followed by a dropsical affection of the lower extremities. From that on he was never able to leave his home. He gradually grew feebler with each recurring day. Recently there was a marked change for the worse. His condition became very critical early this week and his children were summoned to his bedside. All realized that the end was fast approaching. The dying man, surrounded by his family, lingered on the shores of the river of death until yesterday at 12:40 p. m., when he peacefully breathed his last, and passed over to the other side, in eternity.

From the Biographical Encyclopedia of Kentucky, published in 1878, are gleaned some interesting facts as to the life of the deceased and his public services:

Hon. Richard H. Stanton, lawyer and law writer, was a son of Richard and Harriet Perry Stanton, and was born September 9, 1812, at Alexandria, then in the District of Columbia. His father was of English origin, a Marylander by FOR RENT—A double office. Apply to birth, participated in the war of 1812, Mrs. Dr. Russell or L. W. Galbraith, was a bricklayer by pursuit and died at Memphis, Tenn., in 1846. The mother of Judge Stanton was a native of the District of Columbia, and daughter of Alexander Perry, a soldier in the war of the Revolution. Richard H. Stanton was ed-Wanted, to sell a good buggy for $30; ucated at Hallowell Academy, in his nacost $90; home-made. Call on Kackley tive town. He assisted his father at his trade for several years, but spent much of his leisure in reading law, having early decided on entering the legal profession. In 1835 he came to Kentucky, stopping for a few months in Flemingsburg, but subsequently locating at Mays-

He edited the "Maysville Monitor" until 1841, in the meantime, finishing THE late protracted meeting in the M. his law studies, he was admitted to the E. Church at Manchester closed with a bar in 1839, and in 1841, he entered regularly upon the practice of the law. In later years, he and a Mr. Marshall published the Maysville Express, and afterwards he was editor of the Bulletin for some time. He was also tendered the papers of Louisville at one time, but de-

In 1845, he was appointed postmaster of Maysville, then a distributing office, by President Polk, and held the position until 1849. In that year he was elected to Congress and was re-elected in 1851 and again in 1853. During his first term in Congress, he was Chairman of the Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings, and was mainly instrumental in the construction of the dome, and other-Dr. THOMAS F. In 1857, he was appointed Commonwealth's Attorney for what was then the Tenth Judicial District. He was elected PURE DRUGS. to the same position in 1858, and held it until 1862, when he resigned. In 1868, he was elected Judge of the Circuit Court for this the Fourteenth Judicial District,

He was a member of the Baltimore convention, of 1844, that nominated James K. Polk for President, and was also a member of the Baltimore convention, of 1852, that nominated Franklin Pierce for President. He was a member of the Union convention which met at Philadelphia in 1866; also of the New York convention which nominated Seymour for President in 1868.

In 1856 he was Presidential elector and cast the vote of his district for James Buchanan.

As a law writer, no man in Kentucky is better known. Among his published works are: "Civil and Criminal Code of Kentucky;" "Revised Statutes of Kentucky;" "Powers and Duties of Justices of the Peace, Clerks of Courts and Other Officers;" "Manual for Executors, Administrators and Guardians," and "Complete Digest of the Decisions of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, from 1795 to Judge Stanton was always a Democrat, unswerving in his fealty to his party. He was one of the pioneers of Democracy in this section.

He was a voluminous and indefatigable writer, an able and successful lawyer and made for himself a record of which any one might well feel proud, and a place among the most distinguished men of his profession in the State.

In 1833 he was married, in Alexandria, Va., to Miss Throop, a native of that city. She survives him. Of the children born to them seven are still living. Among them are Major Henry T. Stanton, of Frankfort, a distinghished writer of poe try and fiction, widely known as the author of "The Moneyless Man." His other children are Mr. Clarence L. Stanton, for fifteen years editor of the Bulletin, now Superintendent of Agencies for Tennessee and Alabama for the Northwestern Mu tual Life Insurance Company; Mr. Richard H. Stanton, Jr., a lawyer of Carrollton, Ky.; Mrs. Throckmorton Forman, Mrs. James W. Pierce and Mrs. Lewis Pierce, of Fern Bank, near Cincinnati, and Mrs. Wm. E. Okey, of Cranford, N. J.

Deceased was a good citizen, kindhearted, liberal in his views, a learned lawyer, an able writer, a man of firm convictions who could not be swerved from the path of duty, esteemed and honored by his fellow citizens and ever faithful and conscientious in the discharge of the trusts reposed in him.

The funeral takes place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the family residence on East Second street. Rev. D. D. Chapin, rector of the Church of the Nativity, will officiate. Burial private.

A meeting of the Maysville Bar was held at Judge Wall's office at 11 o'clock position of editor of one of the leading this morning, at which it was resolved that the members attend the funeral in a body. A committee was appointed to prepare suitable memorial resolutions to report at April term of the Circuit Court.

BOLD KIDNAPING.

A Wealthy Citizen of Detroit the Victim.

HELD FOR A $15,000 RANSOM.

A Failure in Their Plans Causes the Villains to Release Their Prisoner Who Returns to His Home Unharmed-Hi. Story of What Occurr d During His Confinement.

DETROIT, March 21.—Joseph Perrien. proprietor of one of the largest flouring mills in Detroit, and a half millionaire, was called to his door by a stranger Thursday night with a message purp rting to come from an intimate iriend. who was reported as ill and de iring Mr. Perrien's attendance. Mr. Perrien left his home with the stranger about 10 o'clock, entered a coupe with h m and went away. At 1 o'clock Friday morning the Perrien home door beil was rung, and an envelope thrust in by a young man who immediately disap-

The envelope contained a check for $15,000 on the Peninsular bank, of which 000 payable in five days, and a letter to Mr. Perrien's nephew, Mr. Hesselbacher, advising him to cash the about the cash the cash the about the cash the cas Mr. Perrien is vice president and a large advising him to cash the check, negotiate the note or failing either, to raise $15,000 on his own property, to be paid as a ransom for Mr. Perrien, who was being held by some parties whom the letter did not disclose. The letter appointed a rendezvous at which the money might be paid. The police were immediately put at work upon the ca e, but they had no c ew either to the per-sons who kidnaped Perrien or to his present whereabouts.

Mr. Perrien is a bachelor, 58 years old, and extensively interested in Detroit industries and financial institutions. The letter to Mr. Hesselbacher stated that Mr. Perrien had gotten into trouble with a woman, and had to pay the money over without a word, but this statement is scouted. Both note and check bore Mr. Perrien's genuine signature.

Last night Mr. Perrien returned home safe and sound. He says that upon entering the coupe Thursday night his suspicions were not aroused until he noticed the vehicle turned into the opposite direction to his friends house. He then threw open the door and attempted to jump out. He was met by two masked nen who had revolvers to his head and forced him back into the cab, they following. They then bound. gagged and blindfolded him, the cab keeping on. He was finally removed from the cab to a room where his captors released him from his bonds, and, covering him with revolvers, forced him to write the check, promissory note and letters.

Late yesterday afternoon his captors informed him "that their game was up," but that "they would get him next time." He was then rebound, gagged and blind-folded and conducted 110m and blind-folded and conducted nom the room. Their course seemed to lay play Schaeffer w.ll allow him $250 for over a p'oughed field, after passing which they entered a cab and another long roun a-about drive was commenced. At last Mr. Perrian was unloosed and thrust from the cab in a dazed condition, and before he re overed himself Myrtle and Thirteenth streets and, boarding a street car, reached his home at 8:30 p. m. His captors aid not harm him in any way nor touch his va uables. He was furnished with good food and treated with consideration during his captivity, I is story is accepted as absolutely true, and the police are making every effort to lo ate the perpetrators of the outrage.

STARTLING CONFESSIONS.

Story of Brutal Outrage and Robbery

Proved to Be Only a Plot. BEAVER FALLS, March 21. - Last Wednesday during the absence of Mrs. Bradley from her house on College Hill, Miss Bertha Bork, a neighbor, who was left in charge was found on Mrs. Bradlev's arrival home in the evening in the cellar, bound hand and foot, and the house robbed of money, jewelry and other articles. The girl when untied said a tramp entered the house, sole the goods mentioned and then eat his dinner and left. Yesterday Miss Bork, who is but 16 years of age, made a confession. She said that the alleged tramp was J. H. Witherspoon, a superintendent in the employ of the Pleasant Valley street railroad of Allegheny City, who entered the house disguised as a tramp. Miss Bork and Witherspoon planned the robbery at dinner in the house and to give credence to the tramp story. Witherspoon, on leaving, tied the girl. Witherspoon, who has a wife and six highe St. Louis, March 21.-Last week smallpox broke out in the city hospital and thirteen cases have so far resulted, the last being reported yesterday. All the cases started from a patient, which was carried to the hospital before the symtoms had developed.

Yesterday one of the city work house prisoners developed the disease. All the prisoners have been exposed, as the man has been in the jail since Feb. 24.

Every precaution is taken to check the spread of the contagion. The work house prisoners, numbering 200, nearly all of whom have been fed by the sick man, who has acted as a dining room waiter, are much alarmed. It is probable that no prisoners can be sent to the work house for several weeks until the disease is stamped out.

Her father, hearing her cries for help, burst open the upper door, and the little one jumped into his arms, not, however, be-fore her hair had all been burned of and her body badly scorched. She will probably die.

Valuable Vinegar.

New York, March 21.-Ex-Alderman James Barker was arrested yesterday in his vinegar factory West Seventeenth street on a charge of attempting to de-fraud the United States internal revenue of duty on fi ty-four barrels of "high wines," or whisky as ordinarially called. It is alleged they were stored in a public warehouse by Barker as cider vinegar under the name of James Clark. He was held in $5,000 bail for examination next Friday.

Cor'd Not Compromise.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 12.- The conference between the bosses and journeymen carpenters closed last night without an agreement and the lockout promises to continue indefinitely. The bosses refused to agree not to employ non-union men and demanded that the carpenters should agree not to quit work on account of the employment of that class. The bui ding trades are all at a standstill , y re son of the trouble.
